La Scala Collection

The La Scala collection was originally inspired by Mike Shilov's admiration for Italian architecture, particularly the beauty and variety of staircases as architectural elements.

The collection is the result of research into the different functions of this element, from ancient times to modern and contemporary styles, from celebratory, scenic, and monumental functions, neoclassical and baroque to modern architecture.

The design, which in the collection reduces the element to its essentiality made up of lines, gravitates to a metaphysical space in the shades of different terrestrial and non-terrestrial landscapes.

Designed by Mike Shilov

The designs created by Mike Shilov are characterized by a perfect balance of the fashionable and timeless, and their cosmopolitan style and sophistication in the details determine Mike Shilov's leading position in the top lists of interior designers, including the prestigious hit list of Architectural Digest magazine. In 2016, the apartment interiors designed by Mike for the Bosco Verticale skyscraper in Milan were recognized as one of the ten best projects of the year by AD.
