Abstraction Collection

The collection is based on the ideas of abstractionism and the globalization of forms. Instead of transmitting a simplified spot of some form, various techniques of combining spots are used, finding and creating new “conversations” between form, geometry and color proportion.

At the heart of the concept is the creation of a carpet as an item that makes the interior more fascinating and relevant, generates a light and pleasant mood in the space, and establishes its own code for the interior with the carpet. A rug from the Abstraction collection is an excellent choice for a person seeking for individuality, shape along with novelty, and color in their home.

Designed by Natalia Enze

Natalia Enze is the founder of Enze Architects; she established her studio in Milan in 2016, today she works as a Creative Director and Product designer in the field of interior design and Exhibition, and as an Architect for residential, hospitality and commercial projects.

Natalia's work is internationally renewed and has been awarded as Winner of the German Design Award 2022, Archiproducts Design Awards in 2021 and 2020, NYCxDESIGN Awards 2021; Longlisted at the Archiproducts Design Awards 2022.

Pattern Collection

The Pattern Collection was inspired by the development of architectural styles throughout history. Six unique styles, ranging from Roman to Stick, are represented in the collection, each exhibiting its own elegant and sometimes shocking characteristics. The collection offers various color options, allowing you to choose the perfect fit for your space.

Googie, the headliner design of the collection, embodies the super-aesthetic of 1950s and '60s American retro-futurism, a time of unparalleled innovation and technological advancement. This architectural style was the product of artists who sought to push the boundaries and create new, futuristic shapes. The collection and, in particular, the rug, perfectly captures the philosophy of Googie, with its geometric shapes, harmonious colors, and striking proportions.

Frozen Collection

Images of a true Russian winter, icy air, crunching snow beneath your feet, magnificent ice on the river, shimmering in the sunlight, snowflakes melting in your palm, form the foundation of the collection.

The white snow, like a blank piece of paper, conveys peace and purity. Nature and time seem to stand still in anticipation of new life and transformation.

The world we live in has changed dramatically in recent decades. Digital technology has provided convenience and benefits, but it has also replaced basic and vital values like living conversation and connection with nature. The Soviet-era buildings and artworks that surround us now are trapped in time, transporting us emotionally to a society in which communion with nature was essential.

The rug instantly links to tradition, but interesting approaches in the technique of the rug, such as the varying heights, carving, working with the colors inside the design, and a combination of wool and silk, give the rug uniqueness.

Inspired by the beauty and philosophy of the natural electromagnetic spectrum as a starting point for each design, the Tapis Rouge Studio team looked to the four frequencies of light radiation and their respective wavelengths and photon energies translating them into a collection of 14 distinctive designs that blend fluid forms with striking color gradients.

The rugs are created, cut and washed by the atelier's Nepalese team with the use of only elementary tools, dyes are extracted from natural plants, flowers and trees. Only natural materials - wool and Chinese silk – are used, with all plastics and synthetics omitted.

Planet Earth Collection

The pristine landscapes of Iceland, details of grounds and mosses observed in a journey from the macro to the micro, inspired the Planet Earth collection designed by Margo Trushina.

The sampling of organic textures and patterns, as preserved in their inviolability over the years, has made it possible to carefully reproduce the soft appearance, the complexity of nuances, and overlapping colors of natural surfaces, from moss in bloom to the luminous spectrum of glaciers, to streams of water, reminding us that everything has a time.

Planet Earth is a tribute to nature's strength and fragility; aerial views become dynamic and abstract motifs when viewed up close.

To best represent the variety of surfaces, we combined the light of silk with the softness of wool yarns in different compositions and pile heights.

Designed by Margo Trushina

Margo Trushina has extensive experience exhibiting internationally: her works were presented at the Royal Academy of Arts (London), Museum of Modern Art (Turin), 5th Moscow Biennale of Contemporary Art, SFER IK Museum (Mexico) and many others. Her artistic practice reflects on the latest discoveries in the field of neuroscience, environmentally oriented practices and sustainability. Current ecological issues and challenges of our time - melting ice, the disappearance of plants, animal mutations, - become a topic for reflection and research for an artistic answer.

Pattern Collection

The Pattern Collection was inspired by the development of architectural styles throughout history. Six unique styles, ranging from Roman to Stick, are represented in the collection, each exhibiting its own elegant and sometimes shocking characteristics. The collection offers various color options, allowing you to choose the perfect fit for your space.

Googie, the headliner design of the collection, embodies the super-aesthetic of 1950s and '60s American retro-futurism, a time of unparalleled innovation and technological advancement. This architectural style was the product of artists who sought to push the boundaries and create new, futuristic shapes. The collection and, in particular, the rug, perfectly captures the philosophy of Googie, with its geometric shapes, harmonious colors, and striking proportions.

Designed by Natalia Enze

Natalia Enze is the founder of Enze Architects; she established her studio in Milan in 2016, today she works as a Creative Director and Product designer in the field of interior design and Exhibition, and as an Architect for residential, hospitality and commercial projects.

Natalia's work is internationally renewed and has been awarded as Winner of the German Design Award 2022, Archiproducts Design Awards in 2021 and 2020, NYCxDESIGN Awards 2021; Longlisted at the Archiproducts Design Awards 2022.

The Color-Block collection rugs are made from the finest quality material, 100% bamboo silk, with sandy tones of silk and a vast spectrum of nuances. Abstraction Collection

The collection is based on the ideas of abstractionism and the globalization of forms. Instead of transmitting a simplified spot of some form, various techniques of combining spots are used, finding and creating new “conversations” between form, geometry and color proportion.

At the heart of the concept is the creation of a carpet as an item that makes the interior more fascinating and relevant, generates a light and pleasant mood in the space, and establishes its own code for the interior with the carpet. A rug from the Abstraction collection is an excellent choice for a person seeking for individuality, shape along with novelty, and color in their home.

Tratto Collection

The word “tratto” in Italian describes the act, single or repeated, of producing lines, brush strokes while drawing or sketching or painting, but also engraving, carving and printing on different surfaces. The variety of applications and materials that can be involved in the process and the multitude of gestures can change the depths, thickness, brightness, frequency, energy and uniformity of the Tratto.

Tratto can sometimes be the origin of an illumination; the Collection pays homage to the gesture of drawing as the main tool for translating a vision into a visual.

In the Tratto Collection, the shape of the rug is sometimes curved and irregular to emphasize the dynamism of interiors and strengthen the connection between furniture.

Eco Collection

The islands' and archipelagos' different and bizarre shapes inspire the ECO collection. Created through geological events of different origins, modeled over hundreds of years, the islands are the paradigm of a certain idea of light-heartedness because they are far from everything, but they are also an example of the complexity of nature.

In the designs of the Eco collection, the islands appear summarized in essential shapes made of curved outlines or with few edges. At the basis of the concept, there is an exercise in reading complexity, an intent, albeit playful, to measure everything, even the extremely large, and to be able to translate it into simple and recognizable forms which still retain the image of their archetype.

Frozen Collection

Images of a true Russian winter, icy air, crunching snow beneath your feet, magnificent ice on the river, shimmering in the sunlight, snowflakes melting in your palm, form the foundation of the collection.

The white snow, like a blank piece of paper, conveys peace and purity. Nature and time seem to stand still in anticipation of new life and transformation.

The world we live in has changed dramatically in recent decades. Digital technology has provided convenience and benefits, but it has also replaced basic and vital values like living conversation and connection with nature. The Soviet-era buildings and artworks that surround us now are trapped in time, transporting us emotionally to a society in which communion with nature was essential.

Archive Collection

This collection, consisting of a restoration from vintage designs of historic Art Deco rugs, emerged from a collaboration for a private design project. Using Art Deco elements to evoke a sense of a lost era, the rugs are made of wool and silk.

Photographs of the fabric print were used as a basis to create an Art Deco rug for the Archive collection. Antique furniture complemented the details of the rug designs.

Art deco rugs have become our pride. The rug recipe has enriched our design bank with interesting solutions in rug design. Wool and silk always create a masterpiece effect, especially when we do deep shades combined with patterns, borders and accent details in the rug design.

Tratto Collection

The word “tratto” in Italian describes the act, single or repeated, of producing lines, brush strokes while drawing or sketching or painting, but also engraving, carving and printing on different surfaces. The variety of applications and materials that can be involved in the process and the multitude of gestures can change the depths, thickness, brightness, frequency, energy and uniformity of the Tratto.

Tratto can sometimes be the origin of an illumination; the Collection pays homage to the gesture of drawing as the main tool for translating a vision into a visual.

In the Tratto Collection, the shape of the rug is sometimes curved and irregular to emphasize the dynamism of interiors and strengthen the connection between furniture.

Pattern Collection

The Pattern Collection was inspired by the development of architectural styles throughout history. Six unique styles, ranging from Roman to Stick, are represented in the collection, each exhibiting its own elegant and sometimes shocking characteristics. The collection offers various color options, allowing you to choose the perfect fit for your space.

Googie, the headliner design of the collection, embodies the super-aesthetic of 1950s and '60s American retro-futurism, a time of unparalleled innovation and technological advancement. This architectural style was the product of artists who sought to push the boundaries and create new, futuristic shapes. The collection and, in particular, the rug, perfectly captures the philosophy of Googie, with its geometric shapes, harmonious colors, and striking proportions.

The Himalaya collection was inspired by the surface of the rocky mountains, the crumbly texture and the complex palette that develops over multiple natural layers. Each rug is handwoven by skilled artisans using the finest materials, resulting in unique and durable pieces.

The swirling clouds hang low over the head of the night traveler. The darkness is absolute; no star can pierce it with its light. Nevertheless, the silvery light of the moon, the queen of the night, suddenly illuminates the celestial movement, the whirlwinds of air rushing through the air. The light has reached the ground, and the traveler once again discerns his winding path somewhere deep in the Himalayan mountains. In creating the patterns, we considered the material's texture, the properties of the pile, and the loop' types resulting in a design based on new languages and trends.

Inspired by the beauty and philosophy of the natural electromagnetic spectrum as a starting point for each design, the Tapis Rouge Studio team looked to the four frequencies of light radiation and their respective wavelengths and photon energies translating them into a collection of 14 distinctive designs that blend fluid forms with striking color gradients.

The rugs are created, cut and washed by the atelier's Nepalese team with the use of only elementary tools, dyes are extracted from natural plants, flowers and trees. Only natural materials - wool and Chinese silk – are used, with all plastics and synthetics omitted.

Pattern Collection

The Pattern Collection was inspired by the development of architectural styles throughout history. Six unique styles, ranging from Roman to Stick, are represented in the collection, each exhibiting its own elegant and sometimes shocking characteristics. The collection offers various color options, allowing you to choose the perfect fit for your space.

Googie, the headliner design of the collection, embodies the super-aesthetic of 1950s and '60s American retro-futurism, a time of unparalleled innovation and technological advancement. This architectural style was the product of artists who sought to push the boundaries and create new, futuristic shapes. The collection and, in particular, the rug, perfectly captures the philosophy of Googie, with its geometric shapes, harmonious colors, and striking proportions.

Tratto Collection

The word “tratto” in Italian describes the act, single or repeated, of producing lines, brush strokes while drawing or sketching or painting, but also engraving, carving and printing on different surfaces. The variety of applications and materials that can be involved in the process and the multitude of gestures can change the depths, thickness, brightness, frequency, energy and uniformity of the Tratto.

Tratto can sometimes be the origin of an illumination; the Collection pays homage to the gesture of drawing as the main tool for translating a vision into a visual.

In the Tratto Collection, the shape of the rug is sometimes curved and irregular to emphasize the dynamism of interiors and strengthen the connection between furniture.
